

2018 FEMA SAFER Narrative Writing Service

“Creating Persuasive Narratives”

GRANT SERVICE AGREEMENT

Flagler Emergency Services and your department will exchange:

This FEMA Grant Service Agreement
An Invoice and payment for a portion of the Service Fee ($400.00)*

Flagler Emergency Services will then forward to your department:

A FEMA Grant Informational Questionnaire

Your department will return to Flagler Emergency Services

The completed FEMA Grant Informational Questionnaire

Flagler Emergency Services will, from the provided information, develop and forward to your department:

An initial draft of all the suggested FEMA Grant Narratives.

Flagler Emergency Services will then refine the Narratives, with your input, so that they very accurately and convincingly reflect your department’s situations, needs, hopes and visions.

Flagler Emergency Services will return:

The final authorized Narrative Statements for inclusion in your FEMA Grant application.
An invoice for the balance of the fee ($350.00)

*Total amount ($750.00) can be paid at this time. (All payments may be made with PayPal or check.)

You will “cut and paste” all the provided pre-written Narratives in the appropriate windows in your Application. Your department will do the actual processing and filing of the Application.

Additional set of 2018 AFG Request Application Narratives for same department: $250.00 per set.

(Grant writing fees are a line item in the FEMA application and covered for all grant awardees.)
